

6th Grade Student Schedule

This schedule is current as of August 11, 2020 and subject to slight changes.

Monday

Time	Student Schedule What are students engaged in?
8:35 - 8:40	Students can begin logging on at 8:35. Attendance will be taken at 8:40.
8:40 - 11:40 Morning Meeting, Asynchronous Work, & Specialized Instruction	Teachers will provide all students with asynchronous assignments for independent practice, remediation, or extension. Teachers may also assign work on digital platforms such as ST Math and Imagine Learning. These assignments will be available, or linked, on Schoology (our Learning Management System). Some students will receive live, small group targeted instruction and intervention.

Tuesday - Friday

Time	Student Schedule What are students engaged in?
8:35 - 8:40	Students can begin logging on at 8:35. Attendance will be taken at 8:40.
8:40 - 9:05 Morning Meeting	Students are 'live' with a teacher. During this time, the teacher is facilitating social-emotional learning and building classroom community. This is essential for setting the tone of the learning environment.
9:05 - 9:45 W.I.N. Time "What I Need" Time	This block of time will be used for our MTSS and asynchronous work. The "W.I.N." language we use with students will help students develop the understanding that everyone's needs are different. Everyone may need something a little different to help them grow! All students will be given independent work that will allow for independent practice, remediation, or extension. This work will be completed independently and students will not be 'live' with a teacher. Some students will receive live, small group targeted intervention that is an addition to the core instruction during this time. Multi-Tiered Systems of Support Information
9:45 - 10:15 Specials	Students are 'live' with a Specials teacher. Students will attend their assigned daily special.
10:15 - 10:25 Break	Screen break for students
10:25 - 11:15 Rotation 1	Students are 'live' with a teacher. Students could be engaged in Reading, Math, or Science/Social Studies. They could have a different teacher than their homeroom teacher for this subject.
11:15 - 11:25 Break	Screen break for students
11:25 - 12:15 Rotation 2	Students are 'live' with a teacher. Students could be engaged in Reading, Math, or Science/Social Studies. They could have a different teacher than their homeroom teacher for this subject.
12:15 - 12:45 Lunch	Lunch

6th Grade Student Schedule

This schedule is current as of August 11, 2020 and subject to slight changes.

12:45 - 1:00 Break	Screen break for students
1:00 - 1:50 Rotation 3	Students are 'live' with a teacher. Students could be engaged in Reading, Math, or Science/Social Studies. They could have a different teacher than their homeroom teacher for this subject.
1:50 - 2:00 Break	Screen break for students
2:00 - 2:30 Writing	Students are 'live' with their homeroom teacher. They are engaged in a writing mini-lesson that focuses on a specific strategy or skill. Then, students work independently, while the teacher is conferencing with individual students or small groups.
2:30 - 2:40 Closing Circle	Students are 'live' with a teacher. The teacher brings the class together to focus on social-emotional learning, building classroom community, and executive functioning skills. This could include reflecting on the day, previewing the next day, and ensuring students are aware of any asynchronous assignments.
2:40 - 3:20 Family Choice & Parent Communication	Students are not 'live' with a teacher. This time is family-directed. During this time, teachers will be able to hold parent and/or student conferences, phone calls, and provide feedback on student work.
